CyberHoot Wins Bronze in 15th Annual 2020 IT World Awards®

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Portsmouth, NH - August 2020 – CyberHoot announced today that Network Products Guide (NPG), the one of the tech industry’s leading technology research and advisory groups, has named CyberHoot a Bronze winner in the 15th Annual 2020 NPG’s IT World Awards®.

The IT World Awards are industry and peer recognitions from NPG honoring achievements of the world’s best in product and service innovations, hot technologies, product management and engineering, customer satisfaction, and public relations in information technology and cyber security. Judges from a broad spectrum of industries from around the world participated and their average scores determined the 2020 award winners.

CyberHoot won a Bronze Medal for Startup of the Year under IT Services and Cybersecurity.

“It’s an honor to be recognized by peers in cybersecurity and named a winner by IT World Awards for our company’s blood, sweat, and tears building CyberHoot,” said Craig Taylor. “This validates our product as a powerful solution providing Cybersecurity-as-a-Service serving both MSPs and SMBs.”
